

Ofsted

As you know, we had our Ofsted visit on Tuesday. Whilst we cannot share the outcome with you until the report is released, which will be sometime in January, we can let you know that the children were amazing (as always) and the staff team worked incredibly hard. We also would like to thank you for your lovely Parent View comments – it was overwhelmingly positive and is a clear testament to how you regard the school.

Volunteers

We are always on the look out for volunteers to help us read with the children. If you, or a member of your family, are interested please come and see Mrs Clarke in the office.
